

HARVARD BUSINESS REVIEW · 2011

AN ENQUIRY HAS A SHELF LIFE.

What happened when researchers sent a web enquiry to 2,241 US companies.

34 | AUTOMATION

SWIPE → · 08 SLIDES

37%

replied within an hour.

Source: Oldroyd, McElheran & Elkington, “The Short Life of Online Sales Leads”, Harvard Business Review, 2011. US data.

23%

never replied at all.

Source: Oldroyd, McElheran & Elkington, “The Short Life of Online Sales Leads”, Harvard Business Review, 2011. US data.

42 HRS

average reply time, among the firms that replied within 30 days.

Source: Oldroyd, McElheran & Elkington, “The Short Life of Online Sales Leads”, Harvard Business Review, 2011. US data.

7×

more likely to qualify the lead when they replied within the hour, compared with an hour later.

From 1.25 million leads in the same research.

Source: Oldroyd, McElheran & Elkington, “The Short Life of Online Sales Leads”, Harvard Business Review, 2011. US data.

US DATA. 2011. BUYERS HAVEN'T GOT MORE PATIENT.

ANSWER INSIDE THE HOUR

An acknowledgement goes out straight away, in your words. A real reply follows once someone has looked at the drawing.

EVERY ENQUIRY. ANSWERED.

That's the job we do for owner-led UK engineering firms.

MESSAGE 34 AUTOMATION →

REPLIES THE SAME WORKING DAY