THE QUOTE WENT OUT. THEN WHAT?

Three follow-up messages you set up once and stop thinking about.

SHEET	01 of 08
FORMAT	Document · swipe through
DRAWN BY	34 Automation

YOU PRICED IT PROPERLY. THEN NOBODY ASKED AGAIN.

01

DAY 0

SEND IT WITH A PERSON ATTACHED.

RE: QUOTE · BRACKET · 40 OFF

Here's the price as promised, valid for 30 days. Any questions on the drawing, ring me direct.

02

DAY 3

A SHORT CHECK-IN.

RE: QUOTE · BRACKET · 40 OFF

Just checking this landed OK. Happy to talk through material or lead time if that helps.

03

DAY 10

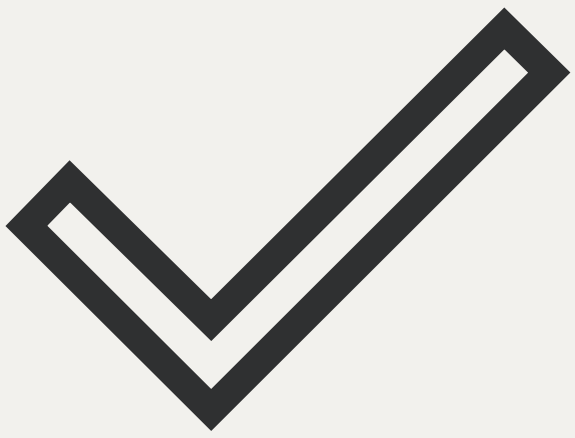

A REAL REASON TO DECIDE.

RE: QUOTE · BRACKET · 40 OFF

We're booking next month's machine time. If you'd like this in the schedule, let me know by Friday.

THEN STOP.

Three messages. If they've gone quiet after that, they've told you. Note why, and move on.

IN YOUR VOICE

You approve the wording once. Then it goes out on time while you're on the machine. Example wording only: use reasons that are true for your shop.

START A CONVERSATION.

Tell us what happens to a quote after it leaves your inbox.

MESSAGE 34 AUTOMATION →

REPLIES THE SAME WORKING DAY